

Your sweet, loving little child starts biting and hitting other children.

(Or lying, pulling hair, tattling, whining ...)

What do you do?

- A. Send him to his room as a time-out
- B. Scold her for her bad behavior
- C. Bribe him to behave better
- D. Ignore her behaviour

Answer: None of the above!

Speechless? Parenting sure has changed a LOT in the past 30 years, hasn't it?

Even if you're not surprised, you still struggle. How do you respond as your precious baby grows up, and so many new situations come up—like biting—that you never expected?

But have no fear—professional help is coming!

We're flying in Canada's leading authority on "parenting without punishment"—all the way from Alberta to Saint John—to talk to you about how you can raise happy, well-behaved, responsible children!

Author of international bestseller "Discipline without Distress," Judy Arnall will talk about how to lovingly communicate—and connect—with your little ones.

But wait, there's more! Judy and the other leading early years experts will also share EASY yet relaxed ways you can support your children's play so they develop cognitively and emotionally, and get them ready ... not only for pre-school or kindergarten, but for the rest of their lives!

All this—and more—for just $60! Come join us at the Play is the Key to Learning conference at UNB Saint John on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26th, 2013!

Full details at www.hamptonalliance.ca or call 832-5665

